Great are You Lord,
Mighty in strength;
You are faithful. You will ever be.
We will praise You, all of our days,
For Your glory, we offer ev'rything,

Raise your hands all you nations,
Shout to God all creation,
How awesome is the Lord
Most high.

Where You send us, God we will go.
You're the answer,
We want the world to know.
We will trust You
When You call our names
Where You lead us,
We'll follow all the way.

Raise your hands all you nations,
Shout to God all creation,
How awesome is the Lord
Most high.
We will praise You together,
For now and forever,
How awesome is the Lord
Most high.

Hallelujah. Hallelujah.
How awesome is the Lord most high.
Hallelujah. Hallelujah.
How awesome is the Lord most high.

Raise your hands all you nations,
Shout to God all creation,

How awesome is the Lord
Most high.

We will praise You together,
For now and forever,
How awesome is the Lord
Most high.

Lord most high.

I Stand Amazed (My Savior's Love)

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel. © Words & Music: Public Domain. CCLI #2605.

I stand amazed in the presence
Of Jesus the Nazarene,
And wonder how He could love me,
A sinner, condemned, unclean.

How marvelous, how wonderful!
And my song shall ever be:
How marvelous, how wonderful
Is my Saviour's love for me!

He took my sins and my sorrows;
He made them His very own.
He bore the burden to Calv'ry
And suffered and died alone.

How marvelous, how wonderful!
And my song shall ever be:
How marvelous, how wonderful
Is my Saviour's love for me!

When with the ransomed in glory
His face I at last shall see,
'Twill be my joy thro' the ages
To sing of His love for me.

How marvelous, how wonderful!
And my song shall ever be:
How marvelous, how wonderful
Is my Saviour's love for me!

Amazing Grace (My Chains are Gone)

Chris Tomlin | John Newton | Louis Giglio. © 2006 sixsteps Music. Vamos Publishing. worshipstogether.com songs (Admin. by Capitol CMG Publishing). CCLI #2905.

Amazing grace how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost but now I'm found
Was blind but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught
My heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed.

My chains are gone
I've been set free
My God my Savior
Has ransomed me
And like a flood His mercy rains
Unending love, amazing grace.

The Lord has promised good to me
His word my hope secures.
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.

My chains are gone
I've been set free
My God my Savior
Has ransomed me
And like a flood His mercy rains
Unending love, amazing grace.

The earth shall soon
Dissolve like snow
The sun forbear to shine
But God who called me here below
Will be forever mine.
Will be forever mine.
You are forever mine.

Pastor's Corner

rac·ism \ 'rā-, si-zəm – a belief that race is the primary determinant of human traits and capacities and that racial differences produce an inherent superiority of a particular race.

<https://www.merriam-webster.com/dictionary/racism>

Am I Racist? (Part 2) Last week, I told you my first memory of noticing skin color ... and of questioning the difference. My Mother's wise and Biblical answer set a good direction in my life.

Today, I want to tell you my first experience with feeling the weight of racism. Growing up in small-town Kansas didn't give me many opportunities to examine my own feelings about ethnic difference. There just weren't that many minorities. I only realized after high school that some of my friends were Mexicans. I encountered more ethnic diversity in my work life and college, but again I don't remember feeling any different towards people based on their skin color. It just wasn't an issue for me.

Then we moved from Kansas to Chicago and encountered a palpable difference. Two things shocked me: hearing racial slurs among older members of the church I was serving, and I feeling a coldness from black people that I had never experienced. The sense of division was undeniable.

Shocked and uncertain how to respond, I felt myself withdrawing. I would not offer a greeting when a black person approached unless I was spoken to first. I began avoiding eye contact. I wasn't pleased with how I felt, but I didn't know how to remedy the situation.

One day I was in the check-out line with an older black woman. She regarded me without expression and then diverted her eyes. I suddenly knew that I had to speak to her ... no matter what response I received. It took one comment (which I can't even remember) and she came to life. We talked all during the checkout process, exited the store together and talked like old friends all the way to our cars. I began making a point out of breaking the ice ... and I honestly can't remember a time when my attempts to be friendly were rejected by a member of the black community. I believe the coolness I felt originated from their uncertainty (or perhaps their certainty) about how they would be received by me.

So ... am I racist? I don't believe so. But, "Do I act like a Racist?" I am capable ... it is in me. So, when world events present the chance for self-reflection on this subject, I need this prayer,

"Search me, O God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts. See if there is any offensive way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting." Psalm 139:23–24

I also need to go back to the basics of how God has called me to treat all people. If I find that the color of a person's skin affects those core Christian behaviors ... I need to take that to God in repentance and ask for healing. I heard a preacher say, "If we will not be subject to God ... we will always want someone to be subject to us." Here's a good place to check your own heart ...

"He has showed you, O man, what is good. And what does the LORD require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God." Micah 6:8
