Opening Song

O Church, Arise

Keith Getty | Stuart Townend. © 2005 Thankyou Music (Admin. by Capitol CMG Publishing). CCLI #2605.

O church arise and put your armor on
Hear the call of Christ our Captain
For now the weak
Can say that they are strong
In the strength that God has given
With shield of faith and belt of truth
We'll stand against the devil's lies
An army bold whose battle cry is Love
Reaching out to those in darkness

Our call to war, to love the captive soul
But to rage against the captor
And with the sword
That makes the wounded whole
We will fight with faith and valor
When faced with trials on every side
We know the outcome is secure
And Christ will have
The prize for which He died
An inheritance of nations

Come see the cross
Where love and mercy meet
As the Son of God is stricken
Then see His foes
Lie crushed beneath His feet
For the Conqueror has risen
And as the stone is rolled away
And Christ emerges from the grave
This victory march
Continues till the day
Every eye and heart shall see Him

So Spirit come
Put strength in every stride
Give grace for every hurdle
That we may run
With faith to win the prize
Of a servant good and faithful
As saints of old still line the way

Retelling triumphs of His grace
We hear their calls
And hunger for the day
When with Christ we stand in glory.
When with Christ we stand in glory.

Call to Worship

Be Thou My Vision

David Allen | Eleanor Henrietta Hull | Mary Elizabeth Byrne. © Words: Public Domain
Music: 1986 Curb Word Music (Admin. by WC Music Corp.), CCLI #2605.

Be Thou my vision O Lord of my heart;
Naught be all else to me,
Save that Thou art –
Thou my best thought,
\By day or by night,
Waking or sleeping,
Thy presence my light.

Be Thou my wisdom,
And Thou my true word;
I ever with Thee
And Thou with me, Lord;
Thou my great Father, I Thy true son;
Thou in me dwelling,
And I with Thee one.

Riches I heed not,
Nor man's empty praise,
Thou mine inheritance,
Now and always;
Thou and Thou only, first in my heart,
High King of heaven
My treasure Thou art.

KEY CHANGE

High King of Heaven,
My victory won,
May I reach Heaven's joys,
Bright Heaven's sun!
Heart of my own heart,
Whatever befall,
Still be my vision, O ruler of all.

Still be my vision, O ruler of all.

Oceans

You call me out upon the waters
The great unknown
Where feet may fail
And there I find You in the mystery
In oceans deep, my faith will stand

And I will call upon Your name
And keep my eyes above the waves
When oceans rise my soul will rest
In Your embrace
For I am Yours and You are mine

Your grace abounds in deepest waters
Your sov'reign hand will be my guide
Where feet may fail
And fear surrounds me
You've never failed
And You won't start now

And I will call upon Your name
And keep my eyes above the waves
When oceans rise my soul will rest
In Your embrace
For I am Yours and You are mine

Instrumental

Spirit lead me
Where my trust is without borders
Let me walk upon the waters
Wherever You would call me
Take me deeper than my feet
Could ever wander
And my faith will be made stronger
In the presence of my Savior

Spirit lead me
Where my trust is without borders
Let me walk upon the waters
Wherever You would call me
Take me deeper than my feet
Could ever wander
And my faith will be made stronger
In the presence of my Savior

And I will call upon Your name
And keep my eyes above the waves
When oceans rise my soul will rest
In Your embrace
For I am Yours and You are mine

I will call upon Your name
Keep my eyes above the waves
My soul will rest in Your embrace
I am Yours and You are mine

When You move I'll move,
I will follow You.
Whom You love I'll love,
How You serve I'll serve
If this life I lose, I will follow You.

Light into the world, light into my life
I will live for You alone.
You're the One I seek,
Knowing I will find
All I need in You alone. In You alone.

Pastor's Corner

Take Aim: My dad used tell me, "If you aim at nothing, you'll hit it every time." Many sons of my era probably heard that quote from Zig Ziglar. What I'd never heard was Ziglar's follow-up question, "Will what you're aiming at change your life?" It's a great life question, but it's an awesome faith question. What are you aiming at in your relationship with Jesus Christ? Will it change your life?

As a young man, I was encouraged often to read my Bible and pray. It's possible I was only half listening, but I don't remember being given a goal. These activities were just things we must do ... ends in themselves. If someone had asked me why, I'm not sure I would have known how to answer. In every other area of my life, I was being encouraged to set goals, but I had no discernable goal for my faith.

Paul gave young Pastor Timothy an assignment, Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a workman who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly handles the word of truth. 2 Timothy 2:15-16 But what was the goal of that encouragement? Being a trustworthy expositor of God's Word? That's only part of the story. The reason Paul wanted Timothy to know and handle God's Word well ... was because others were not. Read what follows and you'll hear about false teaching that was "spreading like gangrene." You'll hear of men who had probably ministered along side of Paul and Timothy but had "wandered from the truth." That leads us to these wonderful words,

In a large house there are articles not only of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay; some are for noble purposes and some for ignoble. If a man cleanses himself from the latter, he will be an instrument for noble purposes, made holy, useful to the Master and prepared to do any good work. 2 Timothy 2:20-21

Timothy, if you persist in knowing and rightly handling God's Word ... if you give up on quibbling about words and shun godless chatter, you will become a man fit for noble purposes, set apart, useful, ready for any good work your Master has in store for you. Now there's something to aim at in your faith! I want to be a person fit for noble purposes, useful in service to the Master of the universe!

This goal is not just for pastors. The goal of maturity and usefulness is repeated loud and often in the New Testament. Jesus Christ gifted the church by giving ... "some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers, (WHAT WAS THE GOAL?) to prepare God's people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ." Ephesians 4:11-13

Many Christians aren't maturing ... because they're not aiming at maturity. Will what you're aiming at change your life? See also Hebrews 5:11-14
